

The Bottomless Hole

Andrew Z.

Old Donation School, 8th Grade

The bottomless hole

A never ending void

A void that never ends

It beckons to all who pass

But don't go to it

It lies to the wise

It tricks the smart

It consumes the kind

Those who have entered

Have cried for the light

Light won't enter the hole

Because the hole has no light

The bottomless hole

A never ending void

A void that never ends
