

Buried in the Sand

Magdalena K.

Old Donation School, 7th

The beach is a calm place
With a moldable shore
Images and creatures drawn
Fighting a silent war

This war leaves footprints,
There in the sand
Still molding and changing
Right in God's hand

They say humans evolved from monkeys
But what about gods?
Does God have hands like monkeys?
Would that defy the odds?

What do you consider the odds as?
Glass half full? Glass half empty?
What is your opinion?
Because you have ideas aplenty
