Front left shoulder
Sewn on the heart like the head on a screw
White, and Large
Always there
On one special jersey
A Golden Ticket in a Wonka Bar
Leadership, Experience, Brave, Strong, and Responsible Picked to lead, like a Commander in War
An advocate for the team,
With a driving fire inside
Kept tame like a lion in a cage
Emotional after a game,
Especially a big one
Willing to take the blame, to let others off the hook
Skates fast,
Strong shot,
in control of him and his troops
Superstitious, as well as last on and off the ice
Knows the team's abilities,
Uses them so they don't get beat,
Best on the Team
It's White and bigger than the letters in the last name
It's Always There
Sewn to wear with Pride.
