

Dazzling Light

Tanmayee Sarikonda

Old Donation School, 8th grade

Like a star it glows,
In the dazzling sky,
Never forgets to shine,
Always gleams in the dark, night heaven,
Like a tiny pearl with a crystal jewel,
Gains everyone's admiration and love.
A man sitting under a tree,
On a mountain, on a vast meadow,
Looked at the blue and dark heavens,
Smiled a gentle smile,
With a photo of his family,
Grateful and thankful for the gleaming light,
Which it had shined upon them,
On their darkest hours.
With the biggest smile anyone has ever seen,
He let out tears of joy,
And happily ate his favorite homemade dish.
As the light protected him,
He protected his family,
And together, they both smiled and lived at the present,
With no struggles to worry.
