

The Majestic Woodland

Crunch, Crunch
I pause for a few moments to find out what was there
Could it be?
A raccoon, a snake, a bear, or even a hare
"It's probably nothing," I said to myself.
Wshh!
I hear water
I could not falter
Finding an old crackling bridge
I cross, watching out for the ridge
As soon as I get over
I felt as lucky as a four leaf clover
I find majestic trees
With honeycombs full of bees
It almost feels uncanny
In every nook and cranny
