

To Be Remembered

*As a star you must strive to shine
Radiate with passion divine*

*You must glisten ever so bright
Competing with the dark of night*

*Ignore your feelings of sorrow
Continue moving and follow*

*You must now set yourself ablaze
This is what it takes to earn praise*

*You may never have time to rest
Because you'll have to be the best*

*If you'll fade away tomorrow
You would only be left hollow*

*Supernovae are remembered
For they are the ones who ventured*
